Old Business

Streetscape Update: It was reported to council members that the village received a check from the state towards the streetscape project in the amount of over $32,000 leaving the cost of $25,000 for the village portion which given the total amount in the beginning was very cost effective in the end for the Village of Maybee.

New Business

Tornado Siren: Council discussed the issue of the need to replace the battery in the tornado siren. After discussing West Shore Services Maintenance findings a motion was then made.

Motion: Liedel 2nd Gramlich to have the battery replaced in the tornado siren. Carried.

Zoning Ordinance Enforcer Report: Council agreed to have our zoning enforcer inform Sam Taormina that he is able to store his equipment inside his building but under no circumstance is he able to leave them parked outside of his building. Also, council members were informed that Exeter Township has made a decision that there would be no taxing on any equipment that was left there.

Motion: Lieto 2nd Gross to adjourn the meeting at 7:47 p.m.. Carried.

Next Meeting: February 8, 2012 @ 7:30 p.m..

Respectfully Submitted,
Theresa Gross, Clerk
