Council Corner

Village council members were sworn in at Wednesdays council meeting. Re-elected were Len Gaylor, President, Jean Grub, Treasurer, Theresa Gross, Clerk, Dale Younglove and Mark Liedel Council. John Gross was elected as the newest member of the council replacing Cliff Weyher. The new road has been completed and the intersection should be finished within a week. It will still take till the end of the month for the concrete to cure. All of the street lights are installed and just waiting for DTE Energy to make the final connection. The sidewalks should be complete by the end of next week and will be ADA compliant. The end is in sight. Residents from Sams Drive were at the meeting with questions about the new business proposed for next door. More info to follow on this. It must first go through the planning commission.

Free dump day is Saturday, October 15 at Carleton Farms Landfill. Bring your drivers license or proof of residency. Hours are from 8am till noon. Questions? call 734-654-0001

Halloween will be celebrated on October 31 from 6:30 till 8:00 pm for all the village ghosts and goblins.
